A large, vibrant collection of various Chinese dishes, including dumplings, noodles, stir-fries, and roasted meats, arranged on a dark wooden table. The dishes are presented in a variety of traditional Chinese vessels, such as bamboo steamers, blue and white patterned bowls, and dark ceramic plates. The food is garnished with fresh herbs like cilantro and red chili peppers, adding to its visual appeal. The overall composition is a rich and diverse representation of Chinese culinary art.

The background features a stylized illustration. On the left, a yellow-tinted drawing of a Gothic cathedral with multiple spires is visible. In the center, a classical building with columns and a quadriga statue on top is shown. To the right, a red-tinted drawing of the Brandenburg Gate is depicted. The background is divided into three horizontal bands of color: white at the top, red in the middle, and gold at the bottom, representing the German flag. The text is overlaid on these bands.
